

CORPORATE LEARNING Passport

A world of high-caliber learning designed by and for accounting and finance professionals

The Myth of Free CPE

The lure of free CPE is seductive. But most free CPE doesn't advance the competence of your team and can cost your organization more than you realize. Organizations spend an average of $1,600/employee for 40 hours of annual check-the box CPE that doesn't maximize employee and employer performance.

Talent Attraction & Retention

Today's hyper-competitive business environment demands a highly skilled workforce. And high-performing employees look for employers with quality professional development programs. Corporate Learning Passport does just that by delivering high-caliber learning that optimizes team skills.

The ROI of Quality Learning

Corporate Learning Passport is a cost-effective way to provide your team with the training they want to help them deliver the results you need. And the centralized approach allows you to streamline employee development and better manage costs.
